WELCOME MESSAGES

Adebola Ige, President

Yoruba Social and Cultural Association of BC

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the third edition of the Metro Vancouver Black Business Expo (MVBBE). Since the inaugural event in 2022 as the first Black business expo in recent history in Metro Vancouver, MVBBE has continued to grow. Our vision of supporting existing businesses and contributing to an ecosystem where entrepreneurs can trade and thrive is exemplified by our partnership with the Surrey Board of Trade. We currently run the Yoruba BC New Entrepreneurial Incubator Program, providing mentorship and support for operational and digital growth for 30 local businesses. I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to all our exhibitors, sponsors, community members, volunteers, collaborating organizations, and especially our partner, the Surrey Board of Trade, for their contributions to the success of MVBBE 2024.

Indra Bhan, Interim CEO and COO

On behalf of the Government of Canada, welcome to the Metro Vancouver Black Business Expo. This event is a celebration of community, culture and leadership. Gathered here today, you are the business leaders creating jobs and opportunity, driving change and inspiring the next generation of entrepreneurs.

The future of British Columbia is bright, with our province being a hub for innovation and an ideal place to grow your business. Our economy grows when you grow. That is why having diverse leadership is key - it brings different perspectives, new ideas, and better decision-making. It is exciting to see so many Black businesses thriving here in B.C.

As Minister responsible for PacifiCan, my vision is enduring prosperity for all British Columbians. To make that happen, PacifiCan is committed to supporting entrepreneurs like you, who are building stronger communities and creating a more inclusive economy.

Thank you to the Yoruba Social and Cultural Association of BC and the Surrey Board of Trade for organizing today's important event. Thank you to all the entrepreneurs who are propelling B.C. forward. I know you will have an inspiring day.

Au nom du gouvernement du Canada, je vous souhaite la bienvenue à cette exposition consacrée aux entreprises noires de Metro Vancouver. Un événement qui célèbre l'esprit communautaire, la culture et le leadership. Vous qui êtes rassemblés ici aujourd'hui êtes les dirigeants et les dirigeantes d'entreprises qui créent des emplois et des possibilités, qui stimulent le changement et qui inspirent la prochaine génération de personnes entrepreneures.

L'avenir de la Colombie-Britannique est lumineux, car notre province constitue un carrefour d'innovation et un endroit idéal pour faire croître une entreprise. Notre économie grandit avec vous. C'est pourquoi un leadership diversifié est si important. Il apporte des perspectives différentes, de nouvelles idées et de meilleures décisions. Il est stimulant de voir autant d'entreprises noires prospérer ici, en Colombie-Britannique.

À titre de ministre responsable de PacifiCan, ma vision consiste à créer une prospérité durable pour tous les Britanno-Colombiens et Britanno-Colombiennes. Pour y arriver, PacifiCan est déterminé à soutenir les personnes entrepreneures qui, comme vous, bâissent des collectivités plus fortes et créent une économie plus inclusive.

Merci à la Yoruba Social and Cultural Association of BC et à la Chambre de commerce de Surrey pour l'organisation de l'important événement d'aujourd'hui. Et merci à tous les entrepreneurs et à toutes les entrepreneures qui propulsent la Colombie-Britannique vers l'avenir. Je sais que cette journée sera inspirante pour vous tous et toutes.
